Brad Pfaff
Deputy Administrator for Farm Program
Farm Service Agency
U.S. Department of Agriculture
Washington, D.C.

Brad Pfaff was appointed deputy administrator for Farm Programs in the USDA's Farm Service Agency (FSA) in January 2016. In this position, Pfaff oversees all FSA programs under the Production Emergencies and Compliance Division, Conservation and Environment Programs Division, and Price Support Division. Prior to his appointment, he served six years as the FSA State Executive Director in Wisconsin. Before joining USDA, Pfaff served on the staff of a Wisconsin U.S. Senator and a Wisconsin member of the U.S. House of Representatives.

Pfaff received a Bachelor of Science degree in Public and Environmental Administration from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay and a Masters of Public Administration degree from George Mason University. Raised on a dairy farm in western Wisconsin, Brad and his wife are the proud parents of two children.
