Val Dolcini
Administrator
Farm Service Agency
U.S. Department of Agriculture
Washington, D.C.

Val Dolcini was selected to serve as the Administrator for the Farm Service Agency in September 2014. He previously served as State Executive Director of the California Farm Service Agency, a position he was appointed to in 1999 by President Bill Clinton and again in 2009 by President Obama. Dolcini also served as the acting Farm Service Agency Administrator in 2011.

As Administrator, Dolcini is responsible for overseeing the administration of farm commodity and conservation programs, farm loan programs, and certain disaster and federal crop insurance programs. Dolcini also serves as the executive vice president of the Commodity Credit Corporation.

Dolcini has many years of public and private leadership experience. Prior to joining the Obama Administration, he managed public outreach activities for Accenture LLC, a global consulting firm. In that position, he strategized with business teams about relationship development and consulted on a wide range of political matters.

He previously served in a senior staff position for the Governor and Lieutenant Governor of California, as well as members of the U.S. House of Representatives.

A fifth-generation Californian and a native of Davis, Calif., Dolcini has served on numerous non-profit boards and commissions in his community. He received his bachelor's degree in history from San Francisco State University and a juris doctorate from Golden Gate University School of Law.
