Jewel H. Bronaugh

Jewel H. Bronaugh, Ph.D., most recently served as the Dean of the College of Agriculture at Virginia State University. Dr. Bronaugh lead the development of the strategic vision and plan for the Extension and Research divisions and the academic departments of Agriculture, Family and Consumer Sciences, and Hospitality Management. She developed robust partnerships with other universities; local, state and federal agencies; and organizations across Virginia to offer competitive educational programs to students and diverse stakeholders. At VSU, Dr. Bronaugh provided leadership for more than 120 employees and 24 grant projects. She was responsible for $8.3 million in federal and state funds and $4.2 million in grant funds. Previously, she served as the Associate Administrator for Extension programs in the School of Agriculture. In her prior role as a 4-H Youth Development Specialist, her research focused on developing and delivering programs to address issues of bullying among today's youth.
